South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY June 27th, to THURSDAY July 4th, 1754.

LISBON, January 14.

THE king being reſolved to improve our commerce in the Eaſt-Indies and China as much as poſſible, has in conſequence granted to M. Feliciano Velho Oldenburgh, an excluſive privilege of ſending 5 ſhips to Macao in China; of which the 1ſt is to ſet ſail next month; the 2d in 1756, and the others in 2 years ſucceſſively one after another. For this privilege Mr. Oldenburgh is to pay to the king 8,000,000 of rees for the 1ſt ſhip, and for the others 10,000,000 each. — At the ſame time his majeſty has granted to the ſaid gentleman an excluſive octroy, to ſend to Goa 11 ſhips in 10 years, viz. in 1754 2 ſhips of 300 tons each, and then one ſhip of 700 tons annually, 'till the year 1763. For which octroy Mr. Oldenburgh is to pay to the king 80,000,000 of rees, which is 8 millions for each ſhip, the 2 of 300 tons being reckoned as one. — As the execution of this vaſt enterprize will require conſiderable ſums, the merchants are invited to join with him and form a company, divided into actions, or ſhares, of 480,000 rees each. Oldenburgh reſerves to himſelf the right of being ſole caſhier and director general; ſo that the members of the company muſt impower him to act for them, and ſuffer the trade to be carried on in his name. In conſequence of this independant adminiſtration, and direction of the company and its capital, he is to buy the ſhips and their cargoes, to ſtation and ſend them out, fix the time of the ſales, and ſettle the dividends. He is alſo to have the nomination of all the officers, both on board the ſhips and on ſhore deducting 3 per cent. for the payment of their ſalaries. The proprietors of ſtock may transfer their ſhares, giving the company the firſt offer, but cannot draw them out.

WE, the ſubſcribers, collectors of the general tax, for St. John's pariſh

LONDON, February 16.

THE king of Sardinia remains ſtill inflexible, as to any accommodation with the court of Rome, that ſhall in the leaſt be inconſiſtent with the dignity and prerogative of his crown.

Feb. 23. It is ſaid the French intend to make once more an attempt to eſtabliſh a colony at Madagaſcar; and that when their contracts in Sweden are fulfilled, their fleet will make as good a figure as ever it did in the laſt reign.

Our correſpondent at Paris obſerves, that the agents of the royal company of the Indies are very aſſiduous at Verſailles; that it is impoſſible to diſcover their particular buſineſs; but that they make no ſcruple of avowing, that things in that part of the world are now at a criſis, and that the European company beſt ſupported at this time, will, for the future infallibly give law to the reſt.

Our freſheſt advices from Ratiſbon intimate, that ſeveral camps are to be form'd this ſummer in Germany; one of 12,000 Daniſh troops in the neighbourhood of Hamburgh; one of 30,000 men in Bohemia; and two of 50,000 in the Pruſſian territories.

Feb. 26. They write from Ireland, that houſe-rent at Kinſale is already conſiderably raiſed on account of the proſpect of a war with France.

Feb. 28. Private letters from Naples ſuggeſt, that even the moſt knowing people in that capital are at a loſs about the quarrel between that court and the knights of Malta, who lay out annually immenſe ſums in his Sicilian majeſty's dominions for proviſions; cover both Naples and Sicily, againſt the forces of the infidels; and were ever remarkably attentive to the requeſts of the court of Naples.

Some accounts from Berlin intimate, that his majeſty's troops will be in the field, ready to be reviewed, earlier than uſual; that ſome apparent marks have violent debates.

March 8. Our advices from the Eaſt Indies repreſent the affairs of the Dutch in the iſland of Java as in a very critical ſituation, on account of ſome differences that have ariſen between the emperor and his nephew. The emperor is reſolved to compel the Dutch to ſupport his intereſts, threatening in caſe of refuſal to expel them wholly out of the iſland: And this menace is ſupported by an army of 150,000 men, to which the Dutch can oppoſe only 6000.

The number of men of war, bomb veſſels, &c. fitting out againſt the Algerines at Toulon, amount to 34, viz. 8 ſhips of the line, the leaſt of which has 60 guns, 8 frigates, 8 bomb ketches, 10 victuallers, and two hoſpital ſhips; and theſe, it is ſaid, are to be joined by a Spaniſh ſquadron. Some officers who have been at Algiers, and made it their buſineſs to take notice of every particular of its ſtrength and ſituation, treat as a timerous prepoſſeſſion the opinion, of thoſe who ſay that this port is ſo ſtrongly defended by works and batteries as to bid defiance to any force. The pretender to the kingdom of Golconda died juſt as he was going to give battle; and the Marattes, a warlike people, who were in alliance with the Engliſh, are come over to M. Dupliex.

Frankfort, March 11. The manufacturers at Solingen are wholly employed in making a vaſt number of ſabres, ſwords and bayonets, as thoſe of Eſſen are in making carbines, muſkets, and piſtols, which are for the uſe of France, and to be delivered before the end of next month.

Madrid, March 1. The drought, which laid our fields deſolate laſt year, threatens us with the ſame calamity this ſeaſon. There fell a little rain in the beginning of January; but it was ſoon dried up by the ſun and wind, which ſtill prevail.

Hanover, March 12. Every thing is preparing in the dominions of the king of Pruſſia for forming two camps in the beginning of the ſpring, and his Pruſſian majeſty is cauſing a great number of horſes to be purchaſed in the empire, for remounting his cavalry.

Paris, March 18. Several battalions are on their march to the Cevennes, to ſuppreſs an inſurrection of the inhabitants, who had lately a ſmart ſkirmiſh with a detachment of the marechauſſé, in which ſeveral were killed on both ſides.

Liſbon, Feb. 23. Our fleet for Goa is ſailed with 4000 troops on board againſt the people of Paraguay, who pretend an independent right there.

Vienna, March 16. All differences between this court and the elector Palatine are adjuſted amicably, in order to the election of a king of the Romans.

phen Maxyck's plantation: It formerly belonged to Henry Simmons, and is called his old field, at three pounds and thirteen ſhillings.

And another tract of 500 acres, on the north ſide of Biggin ſwamp in the ſame pariſh, formerly poſſeſſed by the Rev. Mr. Trutter, at two pounds and ten ſhillings.

Do give this public notice, to all perſons whom it may concern, that unleſs they do pay the tax aſſeſſed on the ſame, with lawful intereſt, within two years from the date hereof, to either of us, or to the public treaſurer of this province, the ſaid lands will be forfeited to his majeſty, and deemed and taken as vacant lands, by virtue of the Tax-Act paſſed the 31ſt of Auguſt laſt.

WHEREAS the Advertiſement formerly publiſhed, and continued for a conſiderable time in this Gazette, by the ſubſcriber, offering remiſſion of the puniſhment juſtly due to Boſton and his wife Sue, two negroes formerly belonging to Mr. Hugh Cartwright, on the terms therein mentioned, hath failed of the end thereby intended: I do hereby promiſe and engage to pay, unto any perſon or perſons, who ſhall or will bring in and deliver to me, the ſaid negro fellow Boſton and his wife, within One Month from the date hereof, dead or alive, the ſum of FIFTY POUNDS current money of this province. At the ſame time I do alſo promiſe, that if the ſaid negroes will voluntarily come home and ſurrender themſelves, I will yet forgive them, notwithſtanding their abſence ſince October laſt. June 19th, 1754.

TO BE LETT or SOLD,

THAT lot of land in Anſonſborough commonly known by the name of the Bowling-Green, containing 4 acres and a quarter of good paſture, and very pleaſantly ſituate on the High-Road juſt out of town, whereon is a good dwelling-houſe and out-houſes, a good garden, &c. of Commerce, who have been very shy in calculating, and valuing the influence it may have on the Dutch company.

March 2. It is ſaid that the Swediſh Eaſt-India company are taking proper ſteps to prevent the growth of French power in or near any of their ſettlements.

Private advices inform us, that the ſubſidy treaty between France and Denmark is renewed. France engages by this new treaty to uſe her good offices with Spain, to open again the ports of that kingdom to the Danes; but her endeavours for this purpoſe, tho' ſincere, have hitherto been ineffectual.

At Conſtantinople, the propoſal for having miniſters from the Grand Seignior at foreign courts, was bro't again upon the carpet a few days ago, in a divan convoked by his highneſs on purpoſe to conſider of that affair, when he deſired all the baſhaws to give their opinions concerning it. Several of them repreſented, that it did not ſeem any way for the advantage of the Ottoman empire to have any cloſer connection with the European powers, and on the contrary might tend to engage it in their diſputes. The conduct, ſaid they, which ought generally to be obſerved between the porte and the powers of Europe may be reduced to two principal points, viz. To procure a proper reſpect to be ſhewn to the porte at ſea, and to prevent any thing from being done by land to occaſion its diſpleaſure: That, when any infractions were likely to be made in either of theſe caſes, they were generally known time enough to get a thoro' knowledge concerning them, whereas miniſters were often ſo attached to the courts where they reſide, that they were often induced to act very different from what they ought to do; and that therefore it was better the porte had no miniſter at the court where any miſunderſtanding ſhould happen, than to have one who might expoſe her to receive ſuch a ſatisfaction as might be unbecoming her dignity.

March 5. A letter from Glaſcow ſays, that 7 ſhips of war were ſoon expected in Clyde, but on what deſign was not known.

By private letters from Germany, there is advice, that the treaty between the courts of Great Britain and Bavaria, has been renewed and extended by the care of Mr. Burriſh, in ſpight of all the oppoſition he had to encounter with. The Auſtrian miniſter has alſo happily concluded at the ſame court, an affair of great importance to the empreſs-queen, and to Germany.

March 6. Letters from Naples adviſe, that they are taking every meaſure to put their navy on a good footing; and that orders are given for augmenting it with ſome men of war and frigates.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 4.

We have received some fresh alarming Accounts from Sarter, concerning some Negroes there being judged to have the Small-Pox; but as they do not amount to Proof, neither has any one Sign of such a Disorder discover'd itself (or been discovered) in Charles-Town, we are hopeful, that a little Time will remove our Fears entirely.

On Sunday last put into this Port, the Brigt. Nancy, Capt. Marshal, from the Bay of Honduras bound for London; who hath inform'd us, that about 8 Weeks ago, a Body of 700 Spaniards (Horse and Foot) came down from Merida, against the Bay-men, and halted at a Place called Labouring-Creek at the Head of the Old-River, where they took and destroy'd all that that could be found belonging to the English, particularly from Mr. William Wells to the Amount of £. 1700 Sterling: That about a Week after this, the Bay-men, with about 600 Negroes, went up from the River's Mouth to dislodge the Spaniards, who, upon their Appearance, retreated as far as Bakelau, with the Loss of 7 Men; but carried off their Plunder: That the Spaniards daily expected a very large Reinforcement at Bakelau; whence they were constantly sending out small Detachments to annoy the English at New-Arter, which they they threaten soon to dispossess them of, and 'twas fear'd they would do; in Consequence whereof many were removing to the Musquito-Shore: That 2 Brigantines, 2 Sloops, and a Galley, well arm'd and mann'd, are constantly relieved and kept cruizing off Cape Bakell about 7 Leagues from the River's Mouth, to intercept the Spanish Vessels, but had not taken any lately: That he came out in Company with Captains Cathcart, Blunt, McCarthy, and Adams, for Boston (the last in Ballast); Sergeant and Clark, for Rhode-Island (the last of these also in Ballast); and Savage and Man, for New-York (both in Ballast): And that he left but 4 Sail in the Bay.

The same Evening, Mr. Tucker spoke with a Sloop off the Bar, from Jamaica bound for Virginia, that had been out 6 Weeks; but the Wind blew so hard, he could not hear the Master's Name.

Last Friday Evening, Mr. Peter Sanders was stopp'd on the Highway, about a Mile and an half from Town, by a Soldier and a Sailor, who knock'd him off his Horse, and turn'd his Pockets out, but finding no Booty there, beat him unmercifully, and would have cut his Throat had not his Boy luckily at that Time appeared with a Wallet and Gun, to rob whom they immediately quitted the Master. These Villians had just before attempted to rob Mr. Patrick Brown going out of Town, and Mr. Ellis the Butcher coming into it: But their farther Progress on the Highway has been prevented, by being both apprehended and secured in our Goal.

A Sloop from Jamaica, bound for this Port, with 48 Slaves on board, is put into Winyah.
